Various select courses may be pursued; for which, however, no degrees are conferred.

Students receive International Law and Constitution of the United States in the Law Department, with the Junior Law Class, to the Chancellor of the University without any additional fee.

By a recent adjustment between the members of the Faculty, it was provided that those paying the regular tuition fees may study French and German without extra charge; otherwise, the fee of ten dollars, as heretofore, will be required.

DEGREES.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts—A. B.—indicates the completion of the general course.

The degree of Bachelor of Science—B. S.—indicates the completion of the Scientific course.

No student can receive either of the above degrees whose average grading for the Senior year falls below 8.

POST-GRADUATE COURSE.

Mental Philosophy—Hamilton, Kant, Reid, Porter, Aristotle. Logic—Hamilton, Aristotle. Ethics—the Bible, Seneca, Jouffroy. Evidences of Christianity—Lardner, Chalmers, Butler. Two of the authors on each of the above subjects required. Mathematics—Descriptive Geometry, Howison's Analytic Geometry, Calculus (Diff. Int. and Variations), Analytic Mechanics (Peirce and Bartlett), Astronomy (Bartlett). Natural Science—proficiency in any branch. Classics—Eclogues, Georgics, Ars Poetica, Oration of Milo, Isocrates, Livy, Philology, or one modern language mastered.

Graduates of this University, who shall have pursued the above course systematically, for two years, or who have pursued liberal or professional studies regularly for three years—as students of Law, Theology, Medicine, Civil Engineering, or have devoted themselves for that length of time to scientific or literary pursuits, as editors, authors, teachers of the higher branches of learning—may submit four theses upon subjects assigned by the Faculty, and, if approved, will be advanced to the degree of Master Arts.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY—PH.D.

The candidate for this degree must be a graduate of some institution of learning, or must have received a degree in some one of the learned professions. In addition to this, he will be required to pursue thoroughly one of the courses given below, and present an approved dissertation, showing original research. A good knowledge of Greek, Latin, German and French will be required in all cases, unless, for satisfactory reasons, the candidate be excused by the Faculty.

I. LETTERS.

English, Latin, Greek, German and French languages—their philological relations to one another and to the Indo-European family in general. Metaphysics, with its general history, Scottish Philosophy, Ethics, Politics, including Theory of Government, Constitutional Law, Principles of Law and international Law.

II. PHYSICS.

Mechanics, Analytic and Synthetic; Geometry, Descriptive and Analytic; Calculus; Shades, Shadows and Perspective; Mechanical Drawing; Surveying, with use of instruments; Astronomy, with use of instruments; Meteorology, Sound, Heat, Light, Electricity.

III. CHEMISTRY.

Chemistry: Inorganic, Organic, Physiological and Agricultural; Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis; Blowpipe Analysis; Metallurgy; Assaying; Chemical Technology; Spectroscopy; Drawing.

IV. NATURAL HISTORY AND BOTANY.

Biology; Zoology, recent and fossil; Human and Comparative Anatomy and Physiology; Histology; Botany, recent and fossil; Microscopy: Microscopic animals and plants; Chemical Physiology.

V. GEOLOGY AND MINERALOGY.

Geology: Lithological, Cosmical, Physiographic, Historic and Dynamic; Economic Geology; Palæontology. Mineralogy: Crystallography; Chemistry of Minerals; Blowpipe Analysis of Minerals; Metallurgy; Drawing and Sketching.

SUGGESTIONS TO OUR PATRONS.

If possible, every student should enter the institution the first day of each Term. Minors should never be left to select their boarding house or course of studies; nor should they ever be allowed to open accounts in the stores. The general course of study has great advantages over all special courses.

TUITION FEES PER TERM OF TWENTY WEEKS, IN ADVANCE.

Freshman and Sophomore, each.....	$30
Senior and Junior, each.....	35
Contingent fee in all classes.....	5
Laboratory fee, for classes in Physical Science.....	2
Library fee.....	1
Boarding, per week, with private families.....	3.50 to 5
Students entering within three weeks of the opening are charged for the full term.
Total necessary expenses, including books, per term of twenty weeks, $116 to $170.
This does not include expenses for clothing.

CLUB BOARDING

Is much cheaper and nearly as pleasant. Clubs of from six to ten, by renting a small cottage, procuring furniture, hiring a servant and purchasing supplies, can board themselves comfortably—every item of expense being included—at from ten to twelve dollars each per month. Some have boarded in this way at seven dollars each per month. Quite a number of the best students are boarding in this way.

LIBRARY AND READING ROOM.

The University Library contains about 7,000 volumes. The Reading Room is supplied with the leading periodicals in the English language. These are open every day except Sunday. They constitute, under their present admirable arrangement, a new feature in the University, and afford great advantages. Several hundred books and a number of valuable maps have been added to the Library, by donations, since the last catalogue.

GRADING.

The parent or guardian of each student is furnished with a monthly statement of the standing of his son or ward, signed by the Chancellor of the University. The grading card also shows the number of times the student is present and absent, and present without preparation during the month. The number of daily recitations required of each student is three, while many have four.

PICTURE GALLERY.

It has been determined to connect with the Reading Room and Library a Picture Gallery consisting mainly of the portraits of former officers of the University, its distinguished patrons, and all graduates of all the departments. It is here earnestly requested of each alumnus that he forward to the Librarian, as soon as convenient, his photograph, with his autograph attached, and the date of his graduation.

PRIZES.

The Edward M. Neal prize is awarded to the best declaimer of the Preparatory School. Prizes awarded as follows: 1st division, Charles Hyde; 2d, D. F. Allgood, 3d, Reese Lillard; 4th, Harry Driffoos.

A prize is awarded by the Professor of the Belles-Lettres Department to the best declaimer in the Sophomore Class. Prize declaimer of Sophomore Class of 1874 Dixon C. Williams.

COLLEGE CODE.

The laws of the University are rigidly enforced, and all embraced in the motto—Semper præsens, semper paratus.

ROUTES TO LEBANON.

A daily train from Nashville gives easy connection with all railroads. Several stage lines run from interior towns to Lebanon.

The next term begins September 6, 1875.

PLAN FOR NON-RESIDENT STUDENTS.

The following plan for the Education of non-resident students in the Academical Department of Cumberland University has recently been adopted by the Faculty and Trustees:

1. Each non-resident student, without exception, shall pay the fees of the particular class which he may enter, as though he were present, excepting the library fee and thereupon his name shall be enrolled and printed in the University catalogue
2. The student thus entering will be put in immediate correspondence with those members of the Faculty who may be his instructors; and whenever he shall report that he is ready, the Professors will direct him what text-books to procure, and assign him his work.

3. At the end of each month the Professors will prepare and send to him Examination Papers of written or printed questions upon the text he shall have studied during that time, and he will be required to forward to them written answers to the same.

4. In writing out his answers, the student shall not procure assistance from any person or book of answers. And to guard against answers procured from other sources, he will be required to append a solemn affirmation that the answers forwarded to the Professors are his own, and that he obtained no such assistance.

Nevertheless, he is not precluded from obtaining aid from other sources during the time he may be preparing his month's work; but, on the contrary, he shall be at liberty to ask any questions, by letter, relative to his studies he may wish, and as often as he may wish; and it shall be the duty of the Professors to forward replies at once.

Thus the correspondence between the Faculty and the student will be constant, and his difficulties all solved. He will be examined monthly, during his whole course, his grading or standing in his class determined from such examinations will be furnished him or his parent regularly every month, and he will ultimately receive the degree of A.B. or B.S., according to the course he may pursue, if his examination shall be satisfactory.

Having given an outline of the plan above, it may here be suggested that the examinations of the students will be so rigid and the correspondence so frequent between them and the Professors, that one graduating upon this scheme will be thorough master of the course. Should it require more than one month for the student to complete the task assigned him, he can have further time, on application to the Professors. This plan will enable many persons who, for want of means or other cause, can not attend College, to receive a thorough education, without the expense of boarding, travelling, &c.

It is bringing the University to the door of every young man in the country.

The poor boy, thirsting for learning, may pursue his daily work in part; the young minister may preach or teach school; or, the son may stay at home and take care of his widowed mother, and still become a scholar; or, the parent may keep his feeble or prodigal son under his own eye at home, and still give him a University education. The Faculty greatly prefer to have every student present, and advise all who can possibly come to do so; but knowing that many can not attend, have devised this plan for them.

The friends of the University need have no fears that the standard of education will be lowered. The examinations of this class will be as searching as if the students were present.

As may be seen, a number of students are successfully pursuing this course.

Students may enter upon either the scientific or general course of study by the non-resident plan, at any time of the year, and are entitled to instruction for six months from the date of their matriculation.

For the information of those who do not wish to pursue either of the regular courses, but prefer to take an elective course by the non-resident plan, the following schedule is especially prepared. And such students may take up any text-book, on any subject, or as many as they choose, and complete them in any time that suits their convenience, after paying the fee or fees placed opposite the subjects selected.

TUITION.

The following are the rates of tuition on the non-resident plan, by subjects, for those preferring to pursue an elective course:

Mathematics.—Algebra, $16; Geometry, $12; Surveying, $8; Trigonometry, $6; Analytic Geometry, $12; Calculus, $10; Mechanics, Hydrostatics and Pneumatics, $8; Heat, $8; Electricity, $8; Acoustics and Optics, $8; Astronomy, $12.

Physical Science.—Chemistry, $12; Mineralogy, $4; Botany, $4; Zoology, $10; Geology, $10.

Belles-Lettres.—Quackenbos's Rhetoric, $9; Grammar, $11; Blair's Rhetoric, $12; Logic, $6; English Literature, $6; Moral Science, $9; Political Economy, $9; Mental Science, $12; Evidences of Christianity, $6.

Languages.—The following are not the fees for the entire text-book, but only for the portion of each read in the course: Sallust, $7; Homer, $7; Cicero's Orations, $7; Herodotus, $7; Horace, $14; Demosthenes, $7; Thucydides, $8; Xenophon's Memorabilia, $7; Livy, $7; Euripides, Alcestis, $7; Prometheus, Æschylus, $7; Tacitus, $7; Quintilian, $7; Sophocles, Electra, $7; Cicero de Officiis, $7; Plato, Gorgias, $7.

SCHOOL OF CIVIL ENGINEERING.

JUNIOR YEAR.

First Term.—Olney's Algebra, Chauvenet's Geometry, Church's Descriptive Geometry, Vose's Road Engineering, Elementary Physics.

Second Term.—Chauvenet's Plane and Spherical Trigonometry, Gillespie's Land Surveying, Church or Davies's Shades, Shadows and Perspective, Howison's Analytic Geometry, Henck's Field Engineering.

SENIOR YEAR.

First Term.—Olney's Calculus, Cox's Wiesbach's Mechanics; Gillespie's Higher Surveying and Leveling, Rankine's Civil Engineering, Dana's Geology.

Second Term.—Norton's Astronomy, Theory of Strains in Girders (Stoney, Shreeve, Merrill and Vose), Bridge Construction (Working Drawings, Models and Lectures), Machines (Rankine and Auchincloss), Wood's Botany (optional).

Drawing.—Topographical, Geometrical, Mechanical, Isometrical and Architectural, with Shading and Tinting—throughout the course.

Field Work.—Adjustment and use of surveying instruments, and extensive practice in sketching Topography.

Those who complete the entire course will receive the degree of Civil Engineer—C.E.

Tuition for term of five months, in advance, $50.

A full course of Land Surveying is given for $50.

The Engineering course may be carried concurrently with the Regular College Course, by commencing it in the Sophomore or Junior years, in which case the tuition fee is $25 per session of five months.

Board from $3.50 to $5 per week. Club boarding from $2 to $2.50 per week.

Recitations from 2 to 5 o'clock, P. M.

The next session commences September 6, 1875.

For further information, address Prof. A. H. Buchanan.

LAW SCHOOL.

JUNIOR CLASS.

Caruthers's History of a Law Suit; Stephen's Pleading; Kent's Commentaries; Greenleaf's Evidence, 1st vol.

SENIOR CLASS.

Barton's Suit in Equity; Story's Equity Jurisprudence; Bishop's Criminal Law, Parsons on Contracts.

This course may be completed in ten months. Students may begin in September or January. It is believed that every subject likely to be encountered in practice will be found treated in the course. As only ten months are required, students will be expected to enter promptly at the beginning of each term.

Those who read the Junior course privately and apply for admission to the Senior Class, with a view to graduation, will be subjected to a rigid examination. If it is approved by the Faculty, the candidates will take their places in the Senior Class, on the same footing as other members. It is most earnestly urged, however, upon all who possibly can, that they enter the Junior Class. Failing to do so, they miss much of the practice and drilling in elements and in forms taught in that class every term. A license to practise and diploma will be given to all who are graduated.

No previous reading of law or any special literary qualification will be required in order to enter the school. The common law, applicable in all the States, is taught, though not by lectures. The law is in the text-books. The Professor can no more make law than the student himself. It is better, therefore, that the student be required to learn a portion of the text and be subjected to an examination in the presence of his class each day. It is the business of the Professor to conduct this examination, and explain difficult passages when necessary.

That full justice may be done to the students, the Professors of this law school devote their whole time to the work, and are not permitted by the Trustees to engage in the practice, or in any other business. Their teaching of the law is not, therefore, a mere incident to other employment. It is thought that the important work of preparing young men for the great profession of law is enough to engage the whole time of the best minds; hence, the prohibition of the Trustees to which reference is made. As there are but two classes, two Professors engaged in the work are abundantly sufficient. A third or fourth teacher would find no class to instruct, and the classes already engaged have full employment. We have no nominal Professors. Regular lectures on the law are not delivered, as they would only divert the minds of the students from their daily work. Every subject upon which a lecture could be given has been exhausted by the ablest Professors, and printed in books, after the most careful revision by the authors. We would regard it as an imposition on students, and presumptuous on our part, to pretend that we could improve upon Kent, Story, Greenleaf, Parsons and others, who have given to the public, in printed form, and acceptable to all, lectures on every branch of the law. We, therefore, think it better for the student to occupy his time in learning, with our assistance, what others have written than in learning from anything we could write. If our mode of teaching is more difficult for us, it is much more profitable to the student.

Moot courts constitute an important feature. Every student is required to bring suits in the forms adapted to all our courts. Professors act as judges, and students act by turns as jurors, clerk and sheriff.

There are two sessions. The first term for the years 1875-6 begins first Monday in September and ends January 20. Second term begins January 24th and ends June 8th. Books of the Junior Class may be bought in Lebanon for $35; Senior Class, $45.

Boarding in families, $3.50 to $5 per week. Tuition fee, $60. Contingent fee, $5. Library fee, $1—always in advance. Washing, lights and fuel, $25 to $35 per session. The whole expense of attending the school one term of twenty weeks, $160 to $190. This does not include books and clothing.

Graduates pay a diploma fee of $5.

All graduates are invited to remain another year free of charge.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL.

TEXT-BOOKS.

ectures on Theology, Broadus's Preparation and Delivery of Sermons, Jahns's Biblical Archæology, Mosheim's Ecclesiastical History, Coleman's Ancient Christianity Exemplified, Upham's Mental Philosophy, Butler's Analogy of Natural and Revealed Religion, Paley's Natural Theology, Bloomfield's Greek Testament, Green's Elementary and Large Hebrew Grammars, Gesenius's Hebrew Lexicon, Biblia Hebraica, Lectures on the Evidences of Christianity.

The following works are recommended for reference :

Schmucker's Popular Theology, Ewing's Lectures, Donnell's Thoughts, Dick's Theology, Hill's Theology, Watson's Institutes, Fletcher's Checks, Dwight's Theology, Knapp's Theology, Woods's Lectures on Theology, Calvin's Institutes, Paley's Evidences and Horæ Paulinæ, Jeremy Taylor's Works, Baxter's Works, Kitto's Cyclopædia, Hug's Introduction to the New Testament, Horne's Introduction, Stuart on the Epistles to the Romans and the Hebrews, on Daniel and the Revelations, Barnes's Notes, Alexander on the Psalms, Campbell's Philosophy of Rhetoric, Vinet's Pastoral Theology, Neander's, Milner's and Geisler's Church Histories, D'Aubigne's History of the Reformation, Cossitt's Life and Times of Fins Ewing, Rollin's Ancient History, Hetherington's History of the Church of Scotland, Eusebius's Socrates, Sozomen's, Evagrius and Theodoret's Church Histories.

The student must furnish his own text-books. The works for reference will be found in the Theological Library.

CLUB BOARDING.

Candidates for the ministry, reciting in any department of the University, are furnished rooms gratis in the College building. They usually form a club, buy their own provisions, and hire a cook. Living in this way is very comfortable, and may be had for $8 to $10 per month, including all expenses.

Candidates pay no tuition, but all pay a contingent college tax of $3 to $5, and a Library fee of $1. This applies to regular Theological students as well as others.

BUSINESS COLLEGE AND TELE- GRAPH INSTITUTE.

FACULTY.

NATHAN GREEN, A.M., L.B.,
Chancellor.

REV. THOMAS TONEY, A.M., M.D.,
Principal and Professor of the Actual Business Department.

W. HOWARD SUTTON, M.Accts.,
Professor of the Science of Accounts and Mathematics.

FRANK GOODMAN, M.Accts.,
Professor of Plain and Ornamental Penmanship.

J. F. WILBER,
Professor of the Theory and Practice of Telegraphy.

It has been thought advisable to locate these departments of the University in the city of Nashville, Tennessee. Nashville is one of the most important railroad and telegraph centres in the South, and consequently better suited for these departments than a more retired location. The Colleges are situated in high, dry and healthy locations. They are supplied with everything necessary to carry on the Actual Business training necessary to prepare the student for the active duties of life.

The large patronage these Colleges have received, together with the ability of the Faculty, and success of the students, are the guarantees we offer for the future. Those desiring a thorough business education can secure it in this (the Nashville) Business College and Telegraph Institute, in as short a time and at as small an outlay of money as at any other College offering similar advantages.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT.

THE COURSE OF STUDY

Is short, practical, thorough—embracing: Book-keeping—By double and single entry on the latest, most approved and best plan, including whole sale, retail, commission, forwarding, agencies, banking, etc., etc. The student, on finishing the course of instruction in this College, can, without assistance, open a set of books and keep them correctly. Commercial Law—In daily drill with lectures. Commercial Arithmetic—In daily drill, including the "Short Method with Arithmetic;" "Lightning Method of Calculation;" "Cause, Effect and Cancellation," etc., etc. Commercial Correspondence—Daily drill and lectures. Penmanship—Daily drill. Ornamental penmanship at reasonable rates. Theory and Practice—This department will include every book in commercial dealings, together with every paper, from the simplest "note of hand" to the most complicated "manifest." The language of each will be studied in its place, and the peculiarities fully explained by the teachers.

TEXT-BOOKS.

Bryant and Stratton's Counting House Book-keeping, Townsend's Commercial Law and Analysis of Letter Writing, and Fairbanks's Commercial Arithmetic.

Students will find all the books needed at the College, and at lower rates than they will usually find them elsewhere.

FULL COURSE SCHOLARSHIPS

Allow the students to complete the entire course, as given above, time unlimited, with the right to review at pleasure, without extra charge for tuition. Price, $50.00. Telegraphy by sound, full course, time unlimited, $50.00.

A SELECT COURSE.

When students do not wish to take the regular business course, they can study anything taught in the College, at the following rates :

Practical Penmanship, per month.....	$ 5 00
Commercial Arithmetic, per month.....	5 00
Book-keeping, as given above, full course, time unlimited.....	25 00
Analysis of Letter Writing and Commercial Correspondence, full course.....	10 00
Ornamental Penmanship, full course.....	25 00

CLUB RATES FOR TUITION.

Two students entering from the same place, if the scholarships are taken at the same time, there will be a deduction of $2 to each student. For three students a deduction of $3 each, and $3 extra to the one raising club. For four students a deduction of $4 each, and $5 extra to the one raising club. For five students a deduction of $5 each, and $7 extra to the one raising club. For six students a deduction of $6 each, and $10 extra to the one raising club. For seven students a deduction of $7 each, and $12 extra to the one raising club. For eight students a deduction of $8 each, and $15 extra to the one raising club. It does not matter whether students enter Business College or Telegraph Institute. They may enter either on same terms. Nor does it matter whether the students enter College at the same time, so the scholarships are taken and paid for at the same time. A liberal deduction to paper operators who wish to learn Telegraphy by sound.

DEDUCTIONS.

With an ardent desire to place the advantages of this Business College and Telegraph Institute in reach of every young and middle-aged man, we make the following liberal proposition :

Full scholarship to ladies.....	$40 00
To ministers' sons, under 21 years of age.....	40 00
To widows' sons, under 21 years of age, who are poor and needy.....	40 00
Those who have but one arm or leg.....	40 00
To all orphans (both parents dead), under 21 years of age, who are poor and needy.....	35 00

This is doing more for the needy than other Colleges are ; please remember this.

THREE MONTHS NECESSARY EXPENSES.

In this time most students can complete the Business Course, or qualify themselves to run an office on a telegraph line. Of course it will require close application.

Tuition in either Business College or Telegraph Institute (local scholarship)...	$ 50 00
Board, 12 weeks, $3 50.....	42 00
Washing, fuel and lights.....	12 00
Books in Commercial Department.....	15 00

Total for three months.....$119 00

Many of our students, who work faithfully and live economically, complete the entire course on less than one hundred dollars.

All the natural qualifications necessary for learning Telegraphy are an ordinarily quick movement, and one who can readily distinguish sounds.

Persons from fourteen to thirty-five years of age are supposed to learn the art more readily than those who are older. Sometimes older persons learn it very rapidly, and soon become proficient operators.

A common English education is all that is absolutely necessary—such as you can acquire at a common country school. This is sufficient for either department.

The Business College and Telegraph Institute will continue open every day in the year, except Sunday. You can enter either of these at any time. As the student is not confined to a class, he can come at any time—the earlier the better.

To prepare the student in Telegraphy to take charge of an office, or to complete the Commercial Course, it usually requires from two to five months. Much will depend upon the ability, previous training and application of the student. Some require longer time, others not so long. The tuition is the same, be the time required long or short.

BOARD.

Good board, with private families, in Nashville, at from $3 50 per week upwards. Students should call at the College before engaging board. Those wishing to board in clubs can live much cheaper. If ten or twelve unite, necessary expenses would not be more than $2 50 or $3 per week.

Send for College Journal. Address the Principal, at Nashville, Tenn.

AMASAGASSEAN SOCIETY.

"Nos Palma Manet."

The Society was organized in 1837, by the advice of Dr. R. Beard, who was then Professor of Languages in Cumberland College, Princeton, Ky., now Professor of Theology in Cumberland University. The following gentlemen were its first charter members: R. E. Ewing, R. L. Ross, J. N. Roach, ——— McGee and J. B. Cherry. Judge Robert L. Caruthers was elected to deliver the first address. Judge Nathan Green, Sr., was elected the first honorary member.

In 1842 Cumberland College was transferred to Lebanon, Tenn., and the name changed to Cumberland University. The Society was transferred at the same time. A new charter was obtained from the Legislature of Tennessee in 1848, with the following as charter members: H. R. Owen, Jesse Aldridge, W. L. Bone, J. L. McDowell, S. B. Vance, T. H. Jamison, R. G. Harper and Nathan Green, Jr.

The officers of the Society are President, Vice-President, Critic and Treasurer, elected quarterly. Two orators are elected biennially to deliver orations at the intermediate exercises in January, and at the commencement in June. A valedictorian is elected annually. In the spring of 1869 another honor was added, that is, Medalist, a gold medal being given to the best debater.

SOCIETY CALENDAR FOR 1874-5.

FIRST SESSION.

President, first term, W. D. Peery, Mississippi.

President, second term, J. R. Monroe, Texas.

Orators, C. A. Brannon, Mississippi, and W. H. Holland, Texas.

Medalist, F. S. Hyde, Tennessee.

SECOND SESSION.

President, first term, B. S. Foster, Tennessee.

President, second term, P. H. Southall, Jr., Tennessee.

Orators, John R. Dinsmore, Mississippi, and Jas. W. Helm, Kentucky.

Valedictorian, Herbert W. Grannis, Tennessee.

Debaters for the Medal, R. V. Atkisson, Tennessee, Arthur Low, Tennessee, W. A. Roane, Mississippi, and John Sanders, Kentucky.

PHILOMATHIAN SOCIETY.

FIRST SESSION.

President, first term, J. W. Harris, Georgia.

President, second term, T. W. Ford, Texas.

Orators, James P. Brown, Tennessee, W. J. Shelton, Tennessee.

Contestants for Medal, Wm. Poindexter, Texas, B. F. Payne, Georgia, W. B. Hardwicke, Alabama, W. L. Douglass, Texas.

Valedictorian, L. K. Cocreham, Texas.

Medalist, William Poindexter, Texas.

SECOND SESSION.

President, first term, J. W. Couch, Alabama.

President, second term, James P. Brown, Tennessee.

Orators, Geo. Inge, Mississippi, T. J. Fisher, Tennessee.

Contestants for Medal, W. B. Lamar, Florida, W. H. Clifton, Mississippi, R. Hatton, Tennessee, E. S. Conner, Texas.

This Society was organized in 1844, from which time until now it has been one of the leading societies of Cumberland University, being seldom surpassed in numbers and never in quality by any of her sister societies. Many of the distinguished graduates of this University, who have stood and now stand prominent at the Bar and in the Pulpit, are numbered among her alumni. Her present members, mindful of her motto—"Nihil sine labore"—seem determined to secure for her a position which even in her palmyest days she never enjoyed.

HEURETHELIAN SOCIETY.

This Society was instituted for "the proper training of the mental and moral faculties of those who are engaged in a preparation for the high, laudable and responsible duties of the ministry, as well as all others who feel a deep interest in the welfare of the church." But by a recent amendment of the Constitution of the Society, anyone in good standing in any department of the University may become a member.

The officers of the Society are Moderator, Clerk, Corresponding Secretary, Critic, Treasurer, Librarian, Censor morum and Chorister, term of office being six weeks for all, except Librarian and Corresponding Secretary, who are elected for five months.

The Society meets every Saturday night, in an elegant and commodious hall, presented by Hon. R. L. Caruthers of Lebanon. The first half hour is devoted to religious services, after which the order of literary exercises is as follows: Orator, essayist, two declaimers and six debaters. Fifteen minutes are allowed to each debater, to be used in one or two speeches, at his discretion. The Society is characterized by good order, a prompt discharge of duties, and a fraternal feeling among its members.

In order both to avoid a prolific source of dissension and spend time and means profitably, intermediate and final exercises have been abolished. A cordial invitation to join us is extended to all who desire to heed the laconic admonition of the Society's motto: "Gnothi ton Theon, gnothi seauton."
